

Law Quiz No 1 – Law in General

1. Which well-known sports star was the accused person at the centre of a case that exemplified the difference between civil law and criminal law?

.....

2. What is the principal legislation in Queensland that defines criminal offences and sets maximum punishments?

The _____ N A L C ____

3. Which of the following is the best explanation of the term "Legislation"?

- a) Law made in the courts by the decision of judges
- b) Law made in parliament by the decision of judges
- c) Law made in courts by the decision of elected representatives of the people
- d) Law made in parliament by the decision of elected representatives of the people

4. Explain what is meant by the following terms:

- (a) What nine (9) letter word means - the person who takes action in a court of civil law?
- (b) What nine (9) letter word means - the person accused of having perpetrated a wrong in a court of civil law.
- (c) What seven (7) letter word means – compensation ordered to be paid (by a court of civil law) by the wrongdoer to the person they have wronged.

5. What is an injunction?

- a) A payment of money to restore financial damages caused
- b) A court order to do or stop doing something
- c) A decision handed down in a civil court that becomes an example of who law works
- d) A stoppage in proceedings of a court case to allow defendant time to examine new evidence

6. How many torts (of law) can you name?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

7. Which of the following is the best explanation of "The Burden of Proof"

- a) Nothing is a crime unless unless the law specifically says it is
- b) Actions that offend morality are not necessarily unlawful
- c) A person accused of a crime has the right to remain silent
- d) Persons accused of having committed a crime are innocent until proven guilty

8. When a person appears in court accused of committing a crime the other party who they face is:
- a) The Attorney General
  - b) The Crown
  - c) The person(s) on who the crime was committed
  - d) The Police
9. Which of the following is the most appropriate explanation of Civil Law:
- a) Civil Law is about ensuring perpetrators of crimes are punished
  - b) Civil Law is about ensuring that the processes of government are in accordance with the principles of democracy
  - c) Civil Law is about settling disputes among individuals
  - d) Civil Law is about protecting the rights of the individual when they are accused of a crime.
10. Which of the following is the most appropriate word used to indicate law that has come into existence through the decision of judges in previous court cases:
- a) Precedence
  - b) Antecedence
  - c) Preference
  - d) Supposition